

REPORT PEDRO SANCHEZ

Hello My Dear Brothers & Sisters!

My visit to Venezuela did not end up in vain, but bore large fruit because in campaigns in Maracaibo, Maracay and Victoria. We witnessed 12 new baptisms in total and once again I am able to witness the incredible power of the Holy Spirit and how it convinces unbelievers to turn from sin and come to believe in Jesus Christ as the Son of God. (John 16: 7-10).

It was also a very exciting preaching conference that I had the pleasure of teaching at with 96 preachers of the churches of Christ in attendance. It was exciting to be a part of the communion and unity between the people of God and seeing a great attitude of humility and eagerness from each of the Ministers to learn and receive the word of God. My call was to love, forgive and serve one another as Jesus did (John 13: 1-17) and also encourage my holy brothers that despite all the difficulties and needs that prevail in living in their country, that they are not orphans but the Holy spirit is here to help us and supply all our needs. (John 14: 15-24).

We give glory and honor to God for what he is doing in this world through His glorious church.

From the city of Gonzales in New Orleans, Your lifelong friend,
Pedro Sanchez
